The smallest tree in Great Britain grows on the summit of Ben Lomond. It is the dwarf willow, which is mature when it attains the height of 2 inches.

Additional Local.

Eva McCabe has returned from a week's stay in Chicago.

H. L. McNeil was at Kalamazoo on business one day this week.

Holmes & Bilsborrow talk this week to those who contemplate painting this season.

Paul and Jessie Cook of South Haven, are visiting their Grandmother Dean in this place.

L. B. Coy is building a porch and making other improvements on his residence.

Broughton is prepared to shoe the entire population, and he tells about it in a big ad. this week.

The new adv. of A. T. Hall's Chronometer stock farm in this issue will be of particular interest to horsemen.

J. B. Southwell has removed from Dowagiac to the farm near Three Mile lake that he occupied 12 years ago.

Wesley Thomas is removing his barn from the bank of the pond to the lots recently purchased by him from Peter H. Gremps, on Main street.

When placing your advertising, remember that the NORTHERNER has nearly twice the circulation of any other Van Buren county paper.

A gentleman is in town looking over the field with a view to starting a steam laundry in the building across the street from the opera house.

Don't fail to read elsewhere in this paper the first of a series of interesting Lincoln articles to be published in this place exclusively by the NORTHERNER.

Mrs. M. U. Richardson, Mrs. J. D. Hamilton, Misses Lyle Buckhout, Baulah McCabe and Daisy Longwell attended the Rhea performance at the academy of music in Kalamazoo, last evening.

Mrs. Caroline Hinckley, one of the first settlers in this vicinity, died at the home of her son Henry in this village last evening at 8 o'clock, in the 89th year of her age. Deceased was well known and highly esteemed. Funeral services will be held at the late residence Sunday morning at 10 o'clock.

The union young people's meetings in progress this week are proving a great success. The series opened Sunday evening at 5:45, and the young people's service was followed by a union meeting with an address by Rev. J. H. Rennie. Remember the announcements already made for this week, and the closing meeting Sunday evening.

The afflicted will be pleased to learn that Dr. McDonald, the eminent specialist, will be in Paw Paw, at the Dyckman House, Friday, April 12, until Friday, April 19. Dr. McDonald is too well-known to require an introduction to the public. His wonderful methods of diagnosing a person's ailments without asking a question, and marvelous and seemingly miraculous cures of prominent people all over the country, have placed him in the foremost rank of his chosen profession. This visit of Dr. McDonald will afford an excellent opportunity for many to consult this eminent specialist close to their homes.

The NORTHERNER would suggest to the new council the propriety of making an arrangement for the publication of the council proceedings in some local newspaper. The people have a right to know exactly what is being done by the village Solons, and this opportunity should be given them. We are not actuated in this stand by any expectation of securing a profitable contract, as we know full well that should but one paper publish the official council proceedings, that paper would not be the NORTHERNER under the present democratic regime. It is merely a question of whether the acts of the council shall be public or not. We trust the gentlemen of the council will consider the matter.

On Saturday and Sunday last occurred the annual meeting of the Paw Paw Valley Spiritual Association in this place. At 2:30 Saturday afternoon, a business session was held. The reports of the secretary, treasurer and other officers were read and the following officers were elected: President, B. O'Dell; vice president, E. C. Towers; secretary, Mrs. Nellie Phillips Raleigh; treasurer, Mrs. Cecilia Nelson; trustees, John Sherman, Mrs. M. O'Dell, Dr. W. H. Nelson. In the evening, Dr. Schermerhorn and Mrs. Woodruff addressed the meeting. Sunday forenoon, the same speakers occupied the platform. In the afternoon, Mrs. Woodruff spoke, and in the evening Dr. Schermerhorn spoke and gave some very interesting tests. The meeting was a successful one.

Obituary.

Mr. Amory K. Parmenter was born Feb. 28, 1816, in the town of Cohocton, Steuben county, N. Y., where he labored on the old farm. On Nov. 25, 1866, Mr. Parmenter was married to Mrs. Julia A. Conner in Hornesville, N. Y., and in the fall of 1871 came to Paw Paw. He lived a life of usefulness and was called home the 28th of March, 1895, being 79 years and one month old.

Five sisters, one in Traverse City and four in the state of New York, and a brother in Minnesota are left to mourn his loss.

Thus another link is added to memory's golden chain, And with saddened hearts we're waiting Till we shall meet again.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to thank the friends and neighbors who so kindly assisted us in our sad bereavement. Please accept heartfelt thanks.

EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Successful District Convention Held in Paw Paw This Week.

The opening session of the annual convention of the Epworth league for the Niles district, was held according to announcement in the Paw Paw M. E. church at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. A large number of leaguers from all over the district attended 125 delegates being present. Besides these, many of our own young people from other churches and many older persons attended all the sessions, filling the church. The following program was fully carried out, not a single paper being omitted.

Tuesday.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

4:00—Miscellaneous Business.

EVENING SESSION.

7:00—Song Service.

7:30—Address. Elvin Swarthout, Grand Rapids.

Mr. Bailey of Benton Harbor had charge of the singing and proved himself an excellent conductor. Rev. H. L. Potter of Hartford, first vice president, presided at all the sessions.

Rev. L. L. Thomas of Coloma and Waterbury was chosen as district president for the ensuing year.

All the papers on the program were of an excellent and instructive character, and not having space to review all of them fully, we are unwilling to do injustice by commenting on any to the exclusion of the others.

The evening programs were of a special character. Tuesday evening, the address of welcome by Miss Neva Sexton and the response by James Bailey of Benton Harbor were especially felicitous. These were followed by fraternal greetings from other young people's societies of this village, D. Anderson Jr. representing the Baptist, A. Clark Seward the Presbyterian and O. W. Rowland the Disciple society. These greetings were of a wide-awake and appropriate character and paved the way for a hearty reception and handshaking, which closed the service.

The closing service of the convention on Wednesday evening was, perhaps, the best of all. Rev. Elvin Swarthout of Grand Rapids delivered an address on the character of literature that Epworth leaguers should read. The whole spirit of the talk tended to create in the minds of the hearers a desire for a purer and better class of reading matter, and the pleasant manner of the speaker, together with the good common sense of his remarks left a pleasant memory of the convention in the minds of his hearers.

The convention was by common consent admitted to be the best ever held in the district. A resolution was passed thanking Paw Paw for the hospitable entertainment of the visitors, and the local league desires to thank the other young people of the village and all who assisted in this entertainment and who otherwise contributed to the success of the convention.

Among those present from away were Presiding Elder Carlisle, Presiding Elder Levi Master of the Kalamazoo district, Rev. Elvin Swarthout of Grand Rapids, Rev. Prentiss E. Whitman of Albion, who presented an excellent report of the state convention of the league.
